Dear Friends,

Welcome to another spectacular season at the Adrienne Arsht Center! You'll always find an unforgettable lineup here, featuring ground-breaking works and cultural treasures, local talent and international powerhouses—the great, vibrant diversity of live performing arts, all on one campus.

- Our Broadway in Miami series showcases all-time, crowd-pleasing favorites. Leading the charge is Broadway legend Betty Buckley in Hello, Dolly!, winner of four Tony Awards® including Best Musical Revival.
- Jon Secada, Kirk Whalum, Ann Hampton Callaway, Cécile McLorin Salvant, Joshua Redman, Robert Glasper, and Sergio Mendes are only a few of the luminaries anchoring our world-class Jazz Roots series.
- A stunning dance schedule highlights the hottest emerging stars and enduring legends—Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater, the unparalleled Sara Baras invigorating this season's Flamenco Festival and Chinese Warriors of Peking, globally recognized for touring with Cirque du Soleil.
- Our Knight Masterworks Classical Music Series includes the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra with Zubin Mehta's farewell tour, the glorious Chicago Symphony Orchestra led by Riccardo Muti, and the inimitable Itzhak Perlman in recital.
- Florida Grand Opera's season starts with Giacomo Puccini's enduring classic La bohème; Miami City Ballet brings back its magnificent reimagining of A Midsummer Night's Dream, George Balanchine's full-length ballet based on Shakespeare's timeless tale; and among other sublime performances, the New World Symphony presents Pinchas Zukerman and James Conlon executing Max Bruch's extraordinary concerto.

As always, the Arsht Center's vibrant offerings are curated with our patrons in mind. We're confident you'll find the exceptional in our halls.

I look forward to seeing your smiling faces.

Sincerely,

M. John Richard
President & CEO
Adrienne Arsht Center for the Performing Arts of Miami-Dade County
