The taking of photographs or any other recording is strictly prohibited.

TONY BENNETT With millions of records sold world-wide and platinum and gold albums to his credit, Bennett has received nineteen Grammy Awards -- including a 1995 Grammy for Record of the Year for his "MTV Unplugged" CD which introduced this American master to a whole new generation -- and the Grammy Lifetime Award. His initial successes came via a string of Columbia singles in the early 1950's, including such chart-toppers as "Because of You," "Rags to Riches," and a remake of Hank Williams "Cold, Cold Heart." He had 24 songs in the Top 40, including "I Wanna Be Around," "The Good Life," "Who Can I Turn To (When Nobody Needs Me)" and his signature song, "I Left My Heart In San Francisco," which garnered him two Grammy Awards.

Tony Bennett is one of a handful of artists to have new albums charting in the 50's, 60's, 70's, 80's, 90's, and now in the first two decades of the 21st century. He has introduced a multitude of songs into the Great American Songbook that have since become standards for pop music. He has toured the world to sold out audiences with rave reviews whenever he performs. Bennett re-signed with Columbia Records in 1986 and released the critically acclaimed The Art of Excellence. Since his 1991 show-stopping performance at the Grammy Awards of "When Do The Bells Ring For Me," from his Astoria album, he has received a string of Grammy Awards for releases including Stepping Out, Perfectly Frank and MTV Unplugged.

Tony Bennett became a Kennedy Center Honoree in 2005, was named an NEA Jazz Master in January of 2006, a Citizen of the World award from the United Nations and a Billboard Magazine Century Award in honor of his outstanding contributions to music. In November 2017, the Library of Congress presented Tony with The Gershwin Prize marking the first time the honor has been bestowed upon an "interpretive singer" as to date it has been given to composers.

Tony's latest album is a collaborative project with long-time friend and colleague Diana Krall titled, "Love is Here to Stay." Celebrating the musical legacy of the Gershwins, the album debuted at #1 on Billboard's Current and Traditional Jazz Charts. Also out now is a new book, Tony Bennett: On Stage and in the Studio. In the new millennium, Bennett's artistry and popularity was higher than ever. In 2006, the year of his 80th birthday, his Duets: An American Classic was released. The album—which included performances with Paul McCartney, Elton John, Barbra Streisand, Bono and others—won three Grammy Awards and went on to be one of the best-selling CDs of the year and Tony's career.

Bennett's first Duets album also inspired the Rob Marshall-directed television special Tony Bennett: An American Classic which won seven Emmys making it the most honored program at the 2007 Emmy Awards. In celebration of his 85th birthday in 2011 the release of Bennett's highly anticipated, Duets II, featured Tony performing with a new roster of celebrated artists including, the late Amy Winehouse (her last recording was their duet of "Body and Soul"), Michael Bublé, Aretha Franklin, Josh Groban, Lady Gaga, John Mayer, and many others. Duets II debuted at #1 on the Billboard Album charts, making Tony the only artist at the age of 85 to achieve this in the history of recorded music. Tony's collaborative jazz album with Lady Gaga, released in 2014, Tony Bennett & Lady Gaga: Cheek To Cheek, debuted at #1 on the Billboard Top 200 album charts making Bennett, at the age of 88, the oldest artists to have a #1 album. Cheek To Cheek won a Grammy in the Best Traditional Pop Vocal category. Bennett's 2015 release, The Silver Lining: The Songs of Jerome Kern won a Grammy for Best Traditional Pop Vocal album.

Tony Bennett became a Kennedy Center Honoree in 2005, was named an NEA Jazz Master in January of 2006, a Citizen of the World award from the United Nations and a Billboard Magazine Century Award in honor of his outstanding contributions to music. In November 2017, the Library of Congress will present Tony with The Gershwin Prize marking the first time the honor has been bestowed upon an "Interpretive singer" as to date it has been given to composers. Tony's latest album will be a collaborative project with long-time friend and colleague Diana Krall. Tony's latest album titled, Love is Here to

Who's Who

Stay, celebrates the music of the Gershwins, the release of which confirmed a Guinness World Record standing for Bennett.

In 1999, Tony Bennett, with his wife Susan Benedetto, a former public school teacher, founded Exploring the Arts (ETA) to strengthen the role of the arts in public high school education. ETA connects private funders, individual artists, and cultural institutions to Partner Schools to achieve greater equality of resources and opportunity for youth of all means and backgrounds. ETA programs are designed to help school principals and teachers sustain the arts in the face of budget cuts and better leverage the arts to strengthen student learning and engagement. ETA's first endeavor was the establishment of Frank Sinatra School of the Arts (FSSA), a public high school founded in 2001 by Tony and Susan in partnership with the NYC Department of Education. FSSA is housed in a newly constructed building in Tony's hometown of Astoria, Queens. Its state-of-the-art facilities includes visual art studios and a gallery, black box theatres and a stagecraft workshop, dance studios, choral and orchestral classrooms, an 800-seat concert hall, a multi-media technology lab, and a rooftop performance garden. All students major in Dance, Theatre, Film, Fine Art, Vocal or Instrumental Music. FSSA also offers a rigorous academic curriculum and holds one of the highest graduation and college enrollment rates for NYC public high schools. ETA continued beyond its commitment to FSSA to expand their support and to date, ETA currently partners with 38 public high schools -- in all five boroughs of New York City and Los Angeles with expansion plans to serve more schools underway.

JORGE MEJIA is a Latin GRAMMY®-nominated classical pianist and composer, Steinway Artist, and music industry executive featured in Billboard Magazine's "40 under 40" and "Latin Power Players" lists. His impassioned performances and evocative compositional style are enriched by his role as a leader in the Latin music world, infusing all facets of his work with a keenly global perspective. Mejia's compositions have been played by the Nu Deco Ensemble, the Miami Symphony Orchestra, the Havana Lyceum Orchestra (featuring pianist Simone Dinnerstein), the Guayaquil Philharmonic (Ecuador), and The Uruguay Youth Orchestra at El Sodre (Uruguay), among others. Born in Bogotá, Colombia, Jorge studied at the New World School of the Arts and the New England Conservatory of Music, and earned a Piano Performance degree from the University of Miami. Jorge is an expert in the power of words wedded to music, having collaborated extensively with some of the world's foremost songwriters. As President of Sony/ATV Music Publishing Latin America and U.S. Latin, he has been instrumental in guiding Sony/ATV Latin to become the leading music publisher in the Latin industry, with a record-setting 15 consecutive ASCAP Latin Publisher of the Year wins, and the "Triple Crown of Publishing" – Publisher of the Year awards from each of the three major performing rights organizations: ASCAP, BMI, and SESAC – in 2016 and 2017. JOSE SEREBRIER is one of most recorded classical artists in history, with multiple GRAMMY® nominations, including the Latin GRAMMY® for "Best Classical Recording of the Year." He has recorded with the New York Philharmonic, London Symphony Orchestra, London Philharmonic, Royal Philharmonic, Russian National Orchestra, Royal Scottish National Orchestra, English Chamber Orchestra, Bamberg Symphony, Oslo Philharmonic, Barcelona Symphony, Irish National Orchestra, Bournemouth Symphony and many others. Maestro Serebrier served as Associate Conductor at Carnegie Hall under Leopold Stokowski from age 21; was Composer-in-Residence at the Cleveland Orchestra for George Szell's last two seasons, and music director of America's oldest music festival in Worcester, Massachusetts. He organized Festival Miami and served as its artistic director. As a composer of more than 100 published works, Serebrier has won many awards, including two Guggenheim Fellowships as the youngest in its history, Rockefeller Foundation grants, the BMI Award, and commissions from the National Endowment for the Arts, Harvard Musical Association, American Composers Orchestra and others. His compositions have been recorded by Leopold Stokowski, Sir John Eliot Gardiner and many soloists. He has toured the world with the Russian National Orchestra, Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, Philharmonia, Pittsburgh Symphony, Orchestra of the Americas, Juilliard Orchestra, Scottish Chamber Orchestra, English Chamber Orchestra, Toulouse National Chamber Orchestra and others. After winning first prize in the Ford Foundation American Conductors Competition, Serebrier started his recording career of over 300 releases. The French critic Michel Faure published a book about Serebrier, soon to be updated in an English edition by Toccata Press.
