Dear Friends,

I am eager to immerse myself in the rich cultural life of Miami as I take the helm of this extraordinary institution as CEO and President. From my homeland in South Africa to my nine years as President and CEO of Arts Commons in Calgary, I have seen firsthand the transformative power of the arts. It's what makes the Arsht Center such a gem in Miami – a place where talent, diversity and imagination merge to create an exhilarating artistic landscape for all to experience. This is a gathering place for everybody.

So many things inspired my wife and I to move here: the Arsht Center's ground-breaking community programs top the list. Each year, these efforts feed the hearts and minds of more than 60,000 Miami-Dade County Public Schools students. These once-in-a-lifetime experiences include AileyCamp Miami, a full scholarship, six-week summer program transforming the lives of over 1,000 underserved students since 2008, and Kitty Hawk, a program that encourages science and math learning through the arts among Miami-Dade's 22,000 seventh-graders every fall with a live musical celebrating the Wright brothers and American ingenuity.

These uniquely curated community engagement programs are matched only by the exceptional talent of local and international superstars on our stages. We're bookending February with the best of the Broadway in Miami series – Les Misérables from February 5th to February 10th and Waitress from February 26th to March 3rd, both in the Ziff Ballet Opera House. Les Misérables is one of the world's most celebrated musicals, seen by more than 70 million people in 44 countries and in 22 languages around the globe. And Waitress, which the Chicago Tribune calls "an empowering musical of the highest order," features original music and lyrics by six-time Grammy nominee Sara Bareilles and a special appearance from one lucky Miami child chosen to play the daughter of the show's main character.

Yoel Levi's tour with the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra on February 6th is a prized experience of the Knight Masterworks Classical Music Series. It's a thrilling opportunity to see an internationally-renowned conductor, celebrated for raising performances to new and critically-acclaimed levels, and one of Israel's oldest and most influential cultural institutions together in Miami. I cannot wait to experience this unforgettable concert in the Knight Concert Hall's world-class acoustics.

The Jazz Roots Series virtuosic lineup continues with Jazz in the Key of Ellison featuring innovative luminaries including Will Downing, Nona Hendryx and the Andy Farber Jazz Orchestra on February 8th in the Knight Concert Hall. The program pays homage to Ralph Ellison, Pulitzer Prize-winning author of Invisible Man and the music that inspired him - from Louise Armstrong to Nina Simone. Audience favorite, Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater, celebrates its 60th Anniversary from February 14th to February 17th in the Ziff Ballet Opera House. You'll be thrilled to know that the grand finale of each performance will be Ailey's beloved masterpiece, Revelations.

I am confident that these and so many more stellar experiences will bring you back to the Arsht Center. And as we work together to deliver the best performing arts experiences – accessible and relevant to all – I will look for you in our halls. Thank you for joining us.

Sincerely,

Johann Zietsman
